VILLAGE ELECTIONS 2017

Kings Contrivance Village elections took place on April 28th and 29th, 2017 and 128 votes were cast. The results are as follows:

For the Village Board - Christiana Rigby: 106 votes, Barbara Seely: 104 votes and Shari Zaret: 105 votes. Each was elected to a two-year term on the village board.

In celebration of our 40th Birthday, our 40th voter, Joseph Nuffer, won a Kings Contrivance polo shirt. Congratulations!

This year's winner of the kids' vote is Grant Botzum! He voted to name the adopted lion Richard. Last year, Kings Contrivance adopted a lion from the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore as part of our kids' vote.

Special thanks to the Election Committee volunteers: Ed Gordon, Guy Guzzone, Jen Terrasa and Mahfuzur Rahman. Thank you also to everyone who voted in our village elections!

Election Day activities included a successful flea market and book exchange, as well as twenty-nine VIN etchings and several enrollments in the Watch Your Car Program, both sponsored by the Howard County Police Department
