Amherst House, with its spacious cathedral ceilings throughout, offers a warm setting for any function. The 4300 square-foot building also has a large, gracious reception area with a soaring brick fireplace.

The Huntington Room (above) is perfect for banquet seating and dancing as well as large business functions. It can seat up to 80 guests at banquet tables and 100 guests theatre-style. The floor to ceiling windows provide a lovely view of the beautifully landscaped patio which is illuminated at night and bordered by trellises.

The carpeted Macgill Room, with a projection screen and conference table, is ideal for business meetings. Free wi-fi is available. For social events, this room can be used in conjunction with the larger Huntington Room offering you additional seating for guests and/or space for the food and beverage buffets.
